Marysville free Summer Children’s Concert Series features the Brian Waite Band Aug. 5 as they take listeners on ‘rock ‘n roll adventure’

The Marysville Sounds of Summer Children’s Concert Series wraps up its first season of Wednesday performances with a free concert by the Brian Waite Band. These rock and roll adventurers will share their high-energy music and storytelling at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 5 in the Lions Centennial Pavilion in Jennings Memorial Park, 6915 Armar Road.

The Brian Waite Band is a popular act on the children’s concert circuit, Park officials say. The local trio has been together 12 years, toured the West Coast, released six CDs, and developed an interactive show that delivers musical theater, storytelling, laughs and danceable rock and roll that takes the entire family on a “Rock ‘n Roll Adventure,” says Brian Waite.

The family concert is sponsored by Kids ‘N Us Early Learning Academy. For more information contact the Parks and Recreation Office at (360) 363-8400 or visit the website at <http://marysvillewa.gov/concerts>.
